

I, ANDREW FAIRLIE SPEIRS ID4902255034087

acknowledge that will effectively be an employee of the voters of ward if elected as a ward councillor during the 18 May 2011 local elections by the said voters of the ward, and that it is the voters of the ward who, through payment of their rates and taxes, pay the my salary.

I therefore commit myself to direct democracy in the following ways:

- I commit to regular and effective consultation with the voting public through public meetings and continuous communication with local residents' associations and community groups via the local press, local radio stations or in person.
- I agree to vote in Council in accordance to the best interest of the voters who elected me, who may from time to time be polled by means of a referendum similar in format to that used for Council petitions.
- I am committed to ensure that the wishes of my constituency are effectively communicated and advocated for in Council and at all levels of local government.
- I am also committed in doing everything within my power to ensuring that the by-laws are upheld and that service delivery is efficient and effective in the ward elected.
- I commit to being held accountable for my performance by the voters.
- I further agree that the registered voters in the ward in question should be able to remove me from office. Should 40% or more of the number of voters who voted in the previous election of the said the said ward sign an open petition I will comply with their wishes and resign. The petition must however adhere to the following rules and regulations:

- The petition must have a proper heading stating the reason of the petition on every page of the petition;
- The petition must be completed within a 30 day period showing the date the petition was drawn up in the heading;

The following information must on the petition per voter:

- the full names of the voter;
- the valid id number of the voter;
- the date signed by the voter; and
- the signature of the voter.

The petition must be an original document and no photocopies will be accepted.

A petition of this nature may not, however, be initiated within 6 months of me taking office or when an election date has been set and may not continue once an election date has been set.
